

Phrasal Verbs (Set 3)

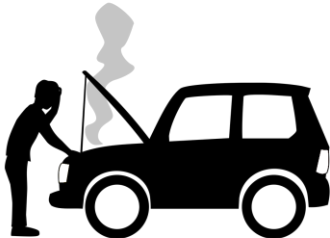

1. come up	To occur or arise	8. look after	To take care of
2. get along	To have a good relationship with someone	9. deal with	To handle or manage something
3. run into	To meet unexpectedly	10. pass away	To die
4. come across	To find by chance	11. look down	To regard someone as inferior
5. take after	To resemble a family member	12. get by	To manage to survive with limited resources
6. go on	To continue	13. hang out	To spend time relaxing or socialising
7. break down	To stop functioning, to fail	14. run out	To have no more of something

1. Write the matching phrasal verb under each picture.

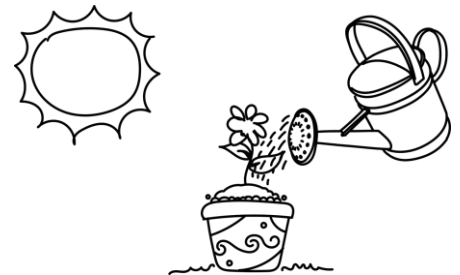

2. Use phrasal verbs to complete the sentences.

- I hope I don't _____ anyone I know- I'm wearing my pyjamas!
- She's trying to _____ a difficult situation at work involving her coworkers.
- Even though times were tough, we managed to _____ on very little money.
- The printer stopped working because we've _____ of paper again.
- We waited for him at the party, but he didn't _____ until it was almost over.

Phrasal Verbs (Set 3) Answers

1. come up	To occur or arise	8. look after	To take care of
2. get along	To have a good relationship with someone	9. deal with	To handle or manage something
3. run into	To meet unexpectedly	10. pass away	To die
4. come across	To find by chance	11. look down	To regard someone as inferior
5. take after	To resemble a family member	12. get by	To manage to survive with limited resources
6. go on	To continue	13. hang out	To spend time relaxing or socialising
7. break down	To stop functioning, to fail	14. run out	To have no more of something

1. Write the matching phrasal verb under each picture.

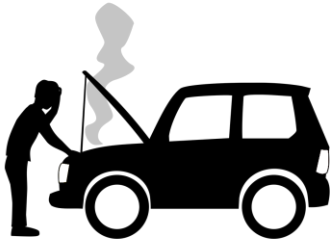

take after

pass away

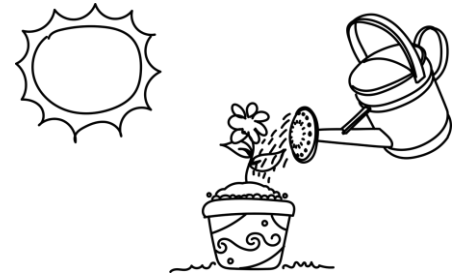

get along

break down

hang out look after

2. Use phrasal verbs to complete the sentences.

- I hope I don't run into anyone I know- I'm wearing my pyjamas!
- She's trying to deal with a difficult situation at work involving her coworkers.
- Even though times were tough, we managed to get by on very little money.
- The printer stopped working because we've run out of paper again.
- We waited for him at the party, but he didn't show up until it was almost over.